

COMPLIMENTARY PRESS REGISTRATION POLICY

As a press representative, please register here for Heart Rhythm 2023, the Heart Rhythm Society's annual meeting from May 19-21, 2023, in New Orleans, LA, and online.

To receive complimentary registration, you must be a qualified press representative from one of the following organizations:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Newspaper | Magazine |
| Television & Broadcast Stations | Radio Station |
| Wire Service | Trade and Online Publication |

The following titles generally qualify:

- | | |
|-------------------------|---------------|
| Reporters | Editors |
| Editorial writers | Photographers |
| Television camera crews | Columnists |

Freelance writers must provide a letter of assignment from a qualifying media outlet. The following titles do not qualify:

- Publishers of books
- Representative of sales / advertising / marketing department of publication or broadcast outlet
- Industry representative
- Member of public relations / advertising / marketing agency
- Corporate / university / hospital representative from public relations / advertising or marketing departments

You will be required to show one of the following to verify your credentials when you pick up your #HRS2023 badge.

- Press pass (with photo and valid date)
- Listing on current masthead of legitimate publication with matching driver's license
- Business card with editorial title
- Press card from organization
- A letter from the editor / publisher / producer verifying your identity

The Heart Rhythm Society reserves the right to deny complimentary registration to press representatives who do not qualify or cannot verify their credentials. For questions or assistance, contact media@hrsonline.org.