ERIC N. PRYSTOWSKY EARLY CAREER RESEARCHER ABSTRACT AWARD GUIDELINES AND ELIGIBILITY

The Eric N. Prystowsky Early Career Researcher Award is an annual award presented to the highest scoring abstract submitted to the Clinical Electrophysiology or Ablation abstract categories. It is provided through the Eric and Bonnie Prystowsky Fund.

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

All interested applicants must submit their abstracts and indicate their interest before the Heart Rhythm 2024 abstract submission site closes on December 15, 2023 at 11:59 PM Eastern Time.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

All authors must submit an abstract through the 2024 abstract submission site. Abstracts submitted after 11:59 PM Eastern Time on December 15, 2023 will not be accepted. For guidelines about submitting an abstract for presentation at Heart Rhythm 2024, please visit our website: HeartRhythm.com

Please note that any abstract accepted into the HRS YIA competition will not be eligible for this award.

ELIGIBILITY

This award is open to early career researchers one to five years out of Fellowship training. The research for the eligible abstract must have been substantially completed during this time and must involve intact human subjects.

PROCESS

The Heart Rhythm 2024 Program Chair and Vice Chair will select the award winner. Award selection will be based on both the relative abstract scores and relative subject matter.

NOTIFICATION

The winners will be notified by mid-February 2024.

AWARDS

The winner(s) will receive a Heart Rhythm Society Eric N. Prystowsky Early Career Researcher Abstract Award plaque, a cash award of $2,000, a travel stipend of $2,500, honorary mention at the Heart Rhythm 2024 Awards Ceremony, and one complimentary registration to Heart Rhythm 2024.
